

Name: _____

Aesop's Fables: Morals and Lessons

For each of the following fables, please list what YOU thought the lesson of the story was on the first line. For the second line, you will write down the lesson of the story as told by Aesop. Your thoughts on the lesson may be exactly the same or entirely different from Aesop's!

The Dog in the Manger:

Your lesson: _____

Aesop's: _____

The Wolf in Sheep's Clothing:

Your lesson: _____

Aesop's: _____

Mercury and the Woodman:

Your lesson: _____

Aesop's: _____

The Gardener and His Dog:

Your lesson: _____

Aesop's: _____

The Milkmaid and Her Pail:

Your lesson: _____

Aesop's: _____

The Ant and the Grasshopper:

Your lesson: _____

Aesop's: _____

The Mice in Council:

Your lesson: _____

Aesop's: _____

The Hare with Many Friends:

Your lesson: _____

Aesop's: _____

The Lion and the Bulls:

Your lesson: _____

Aesop's: _____

The Hare and the Tortoise:

Your lesson: _____

Aesop's: _____

The Crow and the Pitcher:

Your lesson: _____

Aesop's: _____

The Horse and the Groom:

Your lesson: _____

Aesop's: _____

The Hares and the Frogs:

Your lesson: _____

Aesop's: _____

The Eagle and the Fox:

Your lesson: _____

Aesop's: _____

The Creaking Wheels:

Your lesson: _____

Aesop's: _____

The Boy and the Filberts:

Your lesson: _____

Aesop's: _____

The Lion, the Ass, and the Fox:

Your lesson: _____

Aesop's: _____

The Lioness:

Your lesson: _____

Aesop's: _____

The Shepherd Boy and the Wolf:

Your lesson: _____

Aesop's: _____

The Wind and the Sun:

Your lesson: _____

Aesop's: _____

The Lion and the Mouse:

Your lesson: _____

Aesop's: _____

The Sick Lion:

Your lesson: _____

Aesop's: _____

The Mule:

Your lesson: _____

Aesop's: _____

The Father and His Two Daughters:

Your lesson: _____

Aesop's: _____

The Old Man and Death:

Your lesson: _____

Aesop's: _____