

Chains Study Guide

Everything on this study guide will be on the test. The test will be worth 100 points in your test/paper category of your class grade.

1. There will be five sections on the test: matching, true/false, multiple choice, short answer, and sequencing of events.
  2. You will need to know about the following subjects:
    - a. Irony
    - b. Theme
    - c. Historical Fiction (common aspects of the genre as well as how Chains fits the genre
    - d. Slavery during the American Revolution
  3. You should know who the main characters are and what they have done throughout the novel.
  4. You should know the setting of the story as well as the author.
  5. You should know the basic plot points of the story.
-
- Use your 2-column notes to review basic plots points throughout the story!
  - Use your genre and "Slavery in America" worksheets to review as well.